Chicago the Best Summer Resort

It is purely a fad, or answer to the unreasonable demands of convention, that takes a well posted Chicagoan away from town for his vacation. Think how one may spend days in our beautiful parks; may even have good fishing off our miles of piers along the lake and in the streams in our Forest Preserves; dozens of fine golf links are open; and greater than all are the wonderful forest preserves on every side of the city with their natural woods, streams and attractions. Many of these can be reached by street car or elevated, and all by steam railway at a trifling cost. Then if you wish you may spend your nights in your own comfortable bed and keep in touch with the great moving world. Good old Chicago, rather bleak in winter, but in summer it has no equal and we should not desert it.

Vacation Cards at Hiram Kelly Library

There is no red tape necessary in obtaining this card. Just come to the library and get your books any time.

Are We Hammering the Utilities Too Hard?

There is all sorts of complaints, some justifiable, and some not of the service of our various public utilities. It naturally occurs that we are all somewhat to blame for this, inasmuch as we all hammer and hamper them by criticism and political legislation, and give them no opportunity to improve their service. Wages and taxes and all operating expenses have nearly doubled in their lines as well as others, yet we are unwilling to give them the increase they are entitled to. Most of the people want service and we cannot get this by cheap operation, and so long as we heep down the fair revenue of the public utilities, they must operate cheaply. It is unfortunate that our public utilities may be made the foot ball of politicians and cranks. We do not believe that public utilities should be allowed to overcharge, but we do believe an honest fair rate should be decided upon and the companies then compelled to give service. At present no one is satisfied, the companies while they are compelled to stand the increased wage scale, cannot charge an increased rate, and of course cannot give the service they could if their income would warrant greater outlay. It is time to quit exploiting ambitious, political and theoretic views, and get down to a straight business proposition. The people demand service and should have it, and the companies should be allowed sufficient revenue to be able to give it.

The Rise of Col. Beatty

From usher boy to owner of a string of south side theaters and several successful traveling shows makes an interesting story of the rise of E. Thomas Beatty, one of Chicago's most successful purveyors of entertainment.

E. Thos. Beatty

Only thirty-five years of age, it cannot be so many years since he started in the show business as usher at the old "blood and thunder" Alhambra theater, Archer Ave. and State St.

Burlesque has been Mr. Beatty's specialty and his efforts and success in making burlesque "clean" has placed him in the forefront of producers of this class of amusement besides gaining for him much financial success.

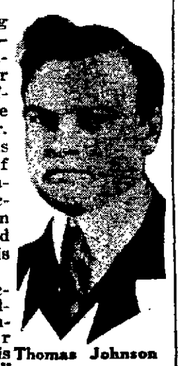
He has recently been elected a director in the Amalgamated Amusement Association, representing the burlesque interests in that body, and he is the dominant figure in the American Burlesque Association. The most successful shows on the "wheel" are those written, produced and owned by Mr. Beatty.

The Englewood theater is owned and operated by Mr. Beatty and in the moving picture field he owns and operates the Linden and E. A. R. theaters.

Linden Theater Pleases Patrons

The Linden theater under the capable management of Mr. Thomas Johnson has come to be Englewood's foremost picture house.

Mr. Johnson, who has been with the house for eleven years, seven of which were spent in the orchestra, at the drums, has acquired a wide range of experience in the show business and is well equipped to cater to the entertainment of the men, women and children of the south side.



Thomas Johnson

The charming lighting arrangements of the Linden, ideal in their simplicity and effectiveness, are the work of Mr. Johnson, who has made a study of lighting, ventilation and projection and insists on the comfort and satisfaction of his patrons.

First run pictures are specialized in at the Linden and their boast and aim is "See it first, here."

One of the finest orchestras in the city augmented with a magnificent, sweet toned pipe organ add a touch of completeness to the presentation of pictures at the Linden and many patrons have commented upon the happy manner in which the orchestra and pictures synchronize, the appropriate music rendered with the pictures and the dramatic fitness and climactic timeliness of music and pictures. A library of music valued at over $1,500 gives the orchestra a repertoire unlimited in scope and of pleasing variation.

E. A. R. Lately Acquired

Among the newest of his acquisitions Mr. Beatty values the E. A. R. theater, recently purchased and now under the efficient management of Mr. John Kempton, who, before his service with the United States army in the world war, was manager of the Linden theater. The E. A. R. has enjoyed an unusual success under its present management.

Almost everyone has noticed that many miles of comparatively new laid paving is ruined after the long winter, and very little service got out of it. The cause is the extremely light foundation, as well as light top dressing. These light pavements were good enough for the one, or at most two ton loads of years ago, but with trucks carrying ten to twenty tons they crumble up like ginger bread. Even the boulevards are disintegrating and are less serviceable than formerly as the constant travel of the thousands of cars, even though they be light in weight, wears off the top dressing and the cold and damp plays havoc with the skimped foundations. Specifications for paving hereafter should specify much heavier foundations, or loads and travel should be limited, or few jobs of paving will last until the last assessment is paid on them.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Never before in the successful history of the Empress theatre has there been a time in which so many big attractions have been booked and given the public. The amount of talent Manager Mitchell has secured for the summer season is a subject of remark in the amusement world, and he goes along in his same old way, seeking even better each week. One feature of the Empress is the excellence of its music and it is the subject of many compliments. Not only does this excellent body of musicians give us the topical music of the day from the latest composers, but back into the classics and among the very best they go until their repertoire makes one happy to hear from the dizziest slimmy jazz to the heavenly strains of the old composers, who knew nothing but real music. The variety of the Empress entertainments is a feature and commends itself to the worn-out business man or woman or even the leisure class. They have the best of pictures, subjects of travels, as well as the latest released features and in addition have a string of star vaudeville acts that none of the city houses may equal. All that is latest and best, all that is good and beyond the ordinary is found at the Empress and you will see and hear it if you get the habit and follow the crowd.

How Not to Write a Newspaper Article

Don't get the idea that a paper wants long articles or that readers care to read them; don't be prolix, state what you have to say in as few words as possible; never mind the elegance of style, and don't get "prexy" and try to teach the world what you know about history and other matters that are all right in their place but out of place in a local paper. We are so limited as to space by the scarcity of print paper that we are compelled to leave out paid matter, hence cannot afford unusual space on any subject. The editor just loves to receive short, pithy news items and lengthy articles are his bane; in fact we have known wicked ones to cuss at them, and we know no one wants us to cuss, so please be brief.

Polly of the Storm Country

You just itch to have a hand in helping poor little Polly, the squatter's daughter, trim the rich Hilltoppers when one by one you see her most cherished possessions taken from her. But the worm will turn—b-e-l-i-e-v-e me! With that sweet, implicit faith in Providence, she gritted her teeth each time Fortune turned its back—until—something snapped!—and Polly, the Angel, threw in the reverse and became Polly, the golden-haired Vesuvius.

The Sensation of the Silent Drama, with

Henry B. Walthall

and All-Star Cast

HENRY WALTHALL

You'll See

The brilliant star of "The Birth of a Nation" in a play that critics concede to be Walthall's greatest work. Amazing scenes, in rapid succession. The play of the season.

You'll See

The great gathering of the clan—The terrific storm—The rescue in the nick of time—The love and romance of two youthful hearts in the flower of life. You'll see tensest action, scenes of amazing power, unquestionably one of the greatest photo-dramas the screen has ever witnessed.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Manager Hughes offers for the coming week at the Marlowe Hippodrome a big fresh breeze of vaudeville, the top liners for Saturday and Sunday, June 12th and 13th, will come "The Royal Four," the best hit of the season, direct from the loop, and if you don't want to laugh, don't go to see it, for it is a regular rib-tickler and hits the spot in many places. Also five big headline acts.

This will be a big combination week of highest grade entertainments and bound to please any audience with standard vaudeville and deluxe photoplays.

The rest of the week is filled with super attractions which space will not permit us to mention here, but when you see them you will know what we mean. Our cooling ventilating system is in operation and the interior of the Marlowe is not only purely ventilated. But is absolutely cooler than the outside atmosphere by several degrees. For comfort, for entertainment and for a good hearty laugh, come to the Marlowe. Nuf sed.

On Monday and Tuesday they offer "Daredevil Jack," Jack Dempsey's popular serial, in which the world's champion shows his prowess and skill in baffling his wily enemies, all of this in addition to the regular vaudeville program. On Tuesday evening the regular professional song publishers' contest takes place and also the contest of local songsters for the pretty floor lamp, an event replete with interest and some excitement.

On Wednesday and Thursday another episode of "The Lost City," the most wonderful serial picture ever presented, and the regular vaudeville bill.

Every Friday night, as well as tonight, we present a grand professional vaudeville revue, consisting of at least four or more acts and all of the best and latest.

The Marlowe plays only the best at all times. The pictures are good and the other attractions afford that variety so welcome to the blase amusement seeker. Come to the Marlowe at any time and enjoy yourself.

Woodlawn Theatre

At the beautiful Woodlawn, the home of aesthetic art and music, the show place of the south side for the best in cinema and symphony, a most excellent bill is offered for this week and its Englewood patrons will gladly avail themselves of the superior attractions. Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, June 11th and 12th the closing engagement of Cecil B. DeMille's master production, "Why Change Your Wife?" The man's side of modern marriage. A brilliant, living answer to Cecil B. DeMille's "Don't Change Your Husband." Presented with all the intimate real-life action, all the beauty of person, gowning and setting that only DeMille can put on the screen. DeMille says to you: "A man would rather have his wife for his sweetheart than any other woman." But—"Ladies: If you would be your husband's sweetheart you simply must learn when to forget that you are his wife." A deft to divorce, featuring Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan, Bebe Daniels, Theodore Kosloff.

Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 13th, 14th and 15th, they present Wanda Hawley in "Miss Hobbs." The story is from the play of the same name by Jerome K. Jerome. It's a comedy of errors in youthful judgment in which there is much ado about everything. The story of an independent young woman who said she hated all men, but merely needed one man to make love to her to change her point of view. A picture you will enjoy. Also "Father's Close Shave" from "Bringing Up Father," with Johnny Ray.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, June 16th, 17th and 18th, Wallace Reid as a rube who comes to New York and shows the city folks not only a few points in business, but also becomes a sensation in the jazziest cabaret in the metropolis, makes an attractive young hero in "The Dancin' Fool," his new picture. It will be shown at the Woodlawn theatre. With pretty Bebe Daniels as his partner, Wallie demonstrates himself as an excellent dancer. By day he toils in Uncle Enoch's jug factory. The business has the dust of many years of neglect on it, but Wallie, as "Vee," the hero, injects some of the pep that makes him a star in the dance and brings Jones Jugs to life. Clara Kennedy adapted the picture from a magazine serial by Henry Payson Dowst. Sam Wood directed and it is a Paramount Artcraft attraction.

WANDA HAWLEY in "Miss Hobbs" Sunday, Monday and Tuesday

Always The Best... Better Than The Rest
LINDEN THEATRE
Street at

The rapidly increasing patronage of the popular Linden Theatre is no doubt due to the fact that Manager Thomas Johnson is ever alive to the requirements of his patrons and is clever enough to put over such productions as appeals to them. This is an art in the film game and "Tom" knows the ins and outs, which linked with service, courtesy and close attention to details, and last, but not least, an exceptionally good orchestra and pipe organ, makes the Linden a very popular photo playhouse.

Special attraction for one solid week commencing Sunday matinee, June 6th. Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson and an all star cast in "Why Change Your Wife?" Why don't wives remain their husbands' sweethearts? When countless pairs of ardent lovers fade into listless "married folk" what's the reason? Who's to blame? After ten years of married life Beth and Robert Gordon are fast drifting apart. Beth is too wifely and tries too hard to please her husband with the result that he becomes a bore instead of a helpmate. In a huff the husband keeps an appointment with a young woman client of his. He is caught by Beth and the two are divorced. Robert marries the client widow but soon discovers that she is becoming worse than his first wife had ever been. Beth, heartbroken, decided to change her method of living and becomes extravagant. Beth and Gordon meet again and they realize their mistake. She nurses him through an attack of a sickness. A divorce is granted from wife number two and Gordon and Beth begin life again. A truly wonderful production.

The greatest sporting event of the present day in pictures will be shown at the Linden Theatre Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 10th, 11th and 12th. The World's Great Auto Derby at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Monday, May 31st, in which thirty of the famous drivers defied death for $100,000 stakes. This is the only officially approved picture and features the winner. Also George Carpentier, the sporting world's idol. This marvelous picture will be shown in addition to "Why Change Your Wife?" Cecil B. DeMille's master production. See them both and see two big feature pictures at one time, a stunt for which the Linden is famous. If you miss either or both you will regret it.

Sunday, June 13th. Mrs. Mildred Harris Chaplin in Grace Miller White's story, "Polly of the Storm Country." As Polly, Mildred Harris Chaplin has the role of a girl clinging to the belief that love is stronger than hate, while an unscrupulous chum seeks safety in pledging her to secrecy about a clandestine marriage. Polly holds to certainty of love until circumstances created by the secret bride wrecks her home, convicts her father and casts her crippled brother on charity—then, with hate surging where love had guided, she seeks revenge and finds a new and startling future before her.

Three days only, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 14th, 15th and 16th. The picture you'll never forget! The play that created a sensation on the American stage, filmed from Hal Reid's sensational success. Henry B. Walthall, star of "The Birth of a Nation," in America's master of emotional drama, "The Confession." See how an erring young chap in the brilliance of youth, life and love is falsely accused of a terrible crime; see how circumstantial evidence fastened the crime on him and led him to his intended doom. See how fate stepped in and rescued him. See this inspiring play that thrills as it entertains—that makes you laugh, makes you cry, makes you mad, makes you glad. See the mighty Henry B. Walthall and picked cast enact one of the tensest screen dramas ever filmed. "Can be placed alongside 'The Birth of a Nation' and 'Broken Blossoms.'"—Boston Herald.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The summer policy of the Empress has begun and means if possible better shows than ever before. The matinees are especially attractive to the ladies and the kiddies and every effort is made to please and entertain them as well as the big clientele of men folks who appreciate the wholesomeness of a good show as a good rest. The Empress believes that people want a variety in their amusements as in every other time of life, that variety is the spice and we sure do hand out the spice as we cover every line from really good top liner movie pictures, travelogues and scientific scenes as well as the best comedies. On the real stage comes the brightest vaudeville talent of the age, the big fellows all appear at the Empress, no matter on which circuit they do their bookings, they all want a date here and we offer our patrons the very widest selection of choice and not "a dead one" in the lot.

We have just finished the re-decoration and house cleaning, and with the improved ventilation system have the most comfortable house in town, bar none. Don't let the spring fever get you. We have a positive cure and the dose is one of our shows afternoon or evening. Follow the crowd, go where all wise amusement lovers do and see a live show at any time at

The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Genuine Pocahontas Coal Will Again Be a Scarce Article This Year, due to the heavy foreign demand for this grade of coal, which class of business nets the Pocahontas operators a greater return for their coal, very little Pocahontas will be shipped to our city.

We expect a certain tonnage of Pocahontas during the summer months, but the amount we will receive is entirely problematical. We will accept orders for Pocahontas from our regular customers, subject to our receiving the coal from the mines, at our price in effect at time of delivery.

Pocahontas coal will be very high in price ($10.00 per ton in load lots is the present price).

Our "Christopher" coal will make a splendid substitution for Pocahontas coal, not alone from the standpoint of fuel economy, but a greater assurance of delivery as well, which at the present time is a very important factor.

Prices for "Christopher Coal" for June Delivery are as Follows.

6-inch Lump, per ton, in load lots	$8.00
Egg (furnace size), per ton, in load lots	8.00
Nut, per ton, in load lots	8.00
Mine Run, per ton, in load lots	7.50

And last, but most important, remember that all prices on coal advance each month and by next winter will be very high. So don't be foolish and delay placing your order. Call at our office or phone us today.

There will be events throughout the whole day—morning, afternoon and night. Some of the events are as follows:

Kite flying, scout race, relay race, medley relay, 50-yard dash, running broad jump, 100-yard dash, trick bicycle riding, bicycle race, tug of war, obstacle race, 50-yard dash (tenderfoot), potato race, three legged race, chariot race, archery, pyramid, disrobing and dressing race, wall scaling, elephant race, wood chopping, tilting, pillow fight, human signal tower, fire with 2 matches, water boiling, fire without matches, water boiling, calisthenic, semaphore signaling, yell competition, military drill.

There will be exhibition tents of work done by the scouts such as models of various kinds, paintings, knot boards, knife work, etc.

Music will be furnished by the southwest district fife, drum and bugle corps of 50 boys. Troop 619 scout band of 26 pieces will play, and the Armour girls' band.

Auburn Park Hospital $500,000 Drive to Begin Monday

Final plans were made this week for the $500,000 campaign for the new Auburn Park Hospital which begins next Monday. More than 2,000 men and women workers have been enrolled for the money raising drive for this much needed institution. The campaign will last ten days. Contributions may be paid in two installments, the first July 1 and the second on the first of next January.

Benjamin S. Wilson, chairman of the executive committee, in charge of the financial campaign, announced that private memorial rooms will be established in the new hospital for contributions of $5,000. Memorial rooms containing two beds will be given for $7,500, and four-bed memorial wards may be established for contributions of $10,000.

"The committee is interesting many persons of means in this memorial feature of the hospital," said Mr. Wilson. "There is no more fitting memorial for some departed loved one than a room in a hospital, dedicated to the care of the sick and injured. It is a most worthy memorial and one which is a lasting benefit to humanity. The committee hopes there will be many memorial rooms in the new Auburn Park Hospital."

All of the memorial rooms will be completely furnished and each will contain a bronze memorial tablet.

Mr. Wilson explained also that life memberships will be issued to every person contributing $50 or more to the hospital fund. One certificate will be issued for each $50 contributed.

Each contributor will have as many votes as he has certificates at the meetings at which the board of directors are elected. There will be twenty-one directors and they will all be elected by the contributors to the hospital fund. These directors will be the real managers of the hospital, but will serve without pay. The hospital is incorporated as a nonprofiting institution, thus saving patients one-third in their hospital bills.

The new hospital will be five stories in height and will contain 200 beds. It will be built adjoining the present hospital and will face Lagoon Park at 78th Place and Eggleston Ave. The present hospital will be used as a home for nurses.

'Dollars and the Woman'

Alice Joyce has the play of the hour in "Dollars and the Woman." With the high cost of living rampant and incomes unreasonably inflated, the theme of this extraordinary play by Albert Payson Terhune, dealing with extravagance when money is plentiful, not alone is a delight to lovers of good pictures, but is pertinent to the present-day mode of living. As Madge Hillyer, Miss Joyce, through extravagance, so well learns the misery of poverty that when wealth comes again she is not capable of enjoying it. The story is new—up to the minute. Harvard Announcements

The Harvard theatre as usual will present some very handsome pictures the coming week, in fact a glance at their advertisement will show that no house in the city runs such a galaxy of attractions of the first order. Some run one good feature and fill up with mediocre for the rest of the program, but with Jimmy Costin they must all be good all the time and this week he seems to have won the laurels.

The parlor playhouse of Englewood has put in its summer equipment, its cool ventilating fans and providing more comfort to its patrons than any house in town.

Today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, June 11th and 12th, will be presented the play you have been waiting for, Cecil B. DeMille's most startling and lavish production, "Why Change Your Wife?" A vital intimate picture of the greatest problem of love and marriage. The man's side of modern marriage. A brilliant, living answer to Cecil B. DeMille's "Don't Change Your Husband." Presented with all the intimate real-life action, all the beauty of person, gowning and setting that only DeMille can put on the screen. Played by a notable cast headed by Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson, Bebe Daniels, Theo. Kosloff and other selected players. Note:—This luxurious play will be presented with special arranged music.

On Sunday, June 13th, continuous from 2 to 11:30 p. m., double feature. Beautiful Alice Joyce in a big special production, "Dollars and the Woman." Alice Joyce has the play of the hour in "Dollars and the Woman." With the high cost of living rampant and incomes unreasonably inflated, the theme of this extraordinary play by Albert Payson Terhune, dealing with extravagance when money is plentiful, not alone is a delight to lovers of good pictures, but is pertinent to the present-day mode of living. As Madge Hillyer, Miss Joyce, through extravagance, so well learns the misery of poverty that when wealth comes again she is not capable of enjoying it. The story is new—up to the minute. Don't miss it. Also the king of comedians, Charles Chaplin, in one of his famous classic comedies, "Behind the Screen." Matinee only, Jack Dempsey in "Daredevil Jack." Pathe News.

On Monday and Tuesday, June 14th and 15th, Mildred Harris Chaplin in Grace Miller White's story, "Polly of the Storm Country." Keeping the secret of a clandestine love affair of a friend nearly proves the undoing of the happiness of Polly Hopkins, played by Mildred Harris Chaplin in this picture. Evelyn Robertson, who some years before had been secretly married to an uncouth farmer, Oscar Bennett, loves Marcus MacKenzie, rich landowner and an enemy of the squatters. Rather than betray this knowledge, Polly risks the loss of the man she loves.

On Wednesday and Thursday, June 16th and 17th, matinee and evening, continuous 2:30 to 11:30, the most wonderful play of the day, "Confession." The scenes of "Confession" present a succession of dramatic thunderbolts. Tense situations and gripping climaxes hold the viewers in suspense throughout, though the tremendous theme is softened by the elements of love and comedy which pervade the story. The denouement of this heart-breaking situation is accomplished by the author, Hal Reid, in clever dramatic fashion and with absolute fidelity to the great fundamental Catholic principle involved. Cardinal Gibbons says of it: "This is the first work of its kind I have ever recommended. You deserve it."

And as a coming attraction we announce Wallace Reid in "The Dancin' Fool," a most sprightly production, for Wednesday, June 18th, for four days. The sensational announcement of the month.

Frivolous Wives to Be Attraction at the National Theatre on Saturday, and Sunday, June 12 and 13 Two Days Only

Local movie fans are to see what has been considered as one of the season's sensational film productions, when "Frivolous Wives" comes to the National Theatre on Saturday and Sunday, June 12th and 13th.

The story deals with a young woman who sacrifices all save her honor and good name to protect her father from the subtle machinations of her false stepmother.

There is excitement galore, fights, escapes and it is said that the height of realism is reached when the automobile in which the scheming count and the false wife are eloping, turns turtle and goes hurtling down a precipice several hundred feet high.

The story is from the prolific pen of Hayden Talbot, the distinguished young author, who is also responsible for several of the biggest hits of the season.

The cast presenting "Frivolous Wives" is a notable one and includes such well known and popular players as Vera Sisson, Lillian Kirkham, Edward Jobson, while the part of the young count is played by Rodolfo di Valentini, who will be remembered for his excellent work in "The Eyes of Youth" in support of Clara Kimball Young.

The picture will be shown for two days.

Vernon Theatre

A big summer opening week is billed for the Vernon theatre and you will miss a lot of pleasure if you miss it. Autoists will find it very convenient to drive over to the Vernon from the south end of Washington Park, just on the 61st St. corner of Vernon Ave. The cool ventilating system is in action, which means a pleasant, clean, well ventilated house at all times.

Today they offer Blanche Sweet in "The Deadlier Sex," one of the really great plays of the day and one you will enjoy. On Saturday Norma Talmadge in the classic, "The Woman Gives," a pretty study of woman's devotion, and on Sunday the attraction will be a Paramount special feature, Ethel Clayton and Harrison Ford in "A Lady in Love." Look before you leap—even if it is Leap Year. See what blind infatuation did to Ethel Clayton. A quick beating tale of a madcap maiden's heart. Beginning in a flutter with an elopement from a convent. Thumping hard when the disillusioned bride discovers wife No. 2. Ending breathless in one of the most exciting medleys of love, law, scandal and happiness ever conceived for a screen romance.

MADGE KENNEDY
In "Dollars and Sense," Wednesday, June 16th

On Monday and Tuesday, as a special extra attraction for the two days, they offer Cecil B. DeMille's "Why Change Your Wife," with Thomas Meighan, Gloria Swanson, Bebe Daniels and all star cast.

Wednesday, June 16th, Madge Kennedy in "Dollars and Sense." A delicious comedy—with laughter trembling on the brink of tears. You'll love every inch of it.

Thursday, June 17th, will be a big double bill of Taylor Holmes in "Nothing But Lies," and Frank Mayo in "The Girl in Number 29." Both first raters and stunning good plays.

E. A. R. Concert Orchestra THEATRE

Among the many other attractions of the pretty E. A. R. Theatre is the excellent music. The wonderful double pipe organ under the manipulations of the talented artist, Prof. Robert Stronach gives a regular artistic concert at each performance. It is real music, the kind music lovers love, and even the everyday admirer of sweet sounds enjoy. Everyone that visits the E. A. R. Theatre speaks of the music and it is well worth while going there to hear it alone.

Coming—three big days only—an opportunity of a lifetime— Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 10th, 11th and 12th, Cecil B. DeMille's master production, "Why Change Your Wife?" The man's side of modern marriage. A brilliant, living answer to Cecil B. DeMille's "Don't Change Your Husband." Presented with all the intimate real-life action, all the beauty of person, gowning and setting that only DeMille can put on the screen. DeMille says to you: "A man would rather have his wife for his sweetheart than any other woman." But—"Ladies: If you would be your husband's sweetheart you simply must learn when to forget that you are his wife." A definitive divorce, featuring Gloria Swanson, Thomas Meighan, Bebe Daniels, Theodore Kosloff.

Sunday and Monday, June 13th and 14th, two big days. Beautiful Ethel Clayton in "A Lady in Love. Supported by Harrison Ford. A romance of youth and the dangerous way. A quick-beating tale of a madcap maiden's heart. Beginning in a flutter with an elopement from a convent. Thumping hard when the disillusioned bride discovers wife No. 2. Ending breathless in one of the most exciting medleys of love, law, scandal and happiness ever conceived for a screen romance. Exquisite gowns, sumptuous setting. Ethel Clayton at her loveliest. Sunday, Century Comedy, "Moonshiners and jailbirds." Also at the matinee only, "The Moon Riders." Monday, our usual added short sketches.

Tuesday and Wednesday, June 15th and 16th. Beautiful Dorothy Dalton in "The Dark Mirror." Flashing with the color, fashion and luxury of New York's "Upper Ten." Painted against the murky background of the Bowery underworld. Beautiful Dorothy Dalton as belle of her social set and "queen" of her gangster pals. Romance, thrills and mystery—scene after scene—in this celebrated novel by Louis Joseph Vance.

Thursday, June 17th, one day only, Will Rogers in "The Strange Boarder." "Don't do it, Kitty, keep straight." The story of a man who believed in the better nature of his fellow men. Thrilling, inspiring. "It cost me two trips to jail and $10,000, but by gum it was worth it!" He didn't know where he and his little son, Billie, were to find their next meal, but he kept smiling. Does optimism pay? It got Sam the greatest girl in the world—and for Billie, the finest mother a boy could want.

Two big days, Friday and Saturday, June 18th and 19th. The picture you'll never forget. Harry B. Walthall, star of "The Birth of a Nation," in America's master emotional drama, "The Confession." See the mighty "Walthall" and a picked cast enact one of the tensest screen dramas ever filmed. It was a success on the stage. On the screen it gains rather than loses, for the scenes are laid in Montana, and the producer has not missed a single opportunity to present the beauty and majesty of that part of the country. Even where it was necessary to resort to the artificial, as in the depicting of the storm, he has done wonderfully well. The entire atmosphere of the picture is intensely dramatic without being overdone. As Father Bartlett, the priest in whose heart must be locked forever the secret that would free his younger brother, Henry Walthall lives up to the difficult standard that he set in his earlier career. He plays the part with a quiet strength and a sincerity that are convincing. A devoted son and a loving brother, he is first of all the man who has pledged his life and his service to God. However sorely tried he is never found wanting. If you have the chance see "The Confession." Criticize it as you will it will do you good to breathe air that is free from the dust and the impurities of the city.

Must Put Auburn Park Hospital Fund "Over the Top"

More than 1,000 men and women, many of them prominent in ward and precinct organizations active during the war in putting their districts "over the top" in the liberty loan and war activity drives, are being banded together again for another service, just as important to the community as the war work proved. This is the $500,000 fund campaign of the Auburn Park Hospital association which is soon to begin.

Residents of the whole south side district from 55th St. south, from the lake almost to the drainage canal, if they do not know of the needs of the community for a large hospital such as has been planned for Auburn Park, will know it before the fund drive is concluded. The workers, who are being "recalled," as it were, to public service, learned the lesson as early as 1917—many of them knew it well before then—of spreading their gospel of "help where it's needed most" and they are being primed at the weekly meetings of the workers at the 79th St. headquarters to start off on both feet when the drive begins.

"Some persons have the idea, now that the war has just about been forgotten, that the time for opening the purse strings has passed," said Benjamin S. Wilson, chairman of the executive committee in charge of the drive. "There never was a time," he continued, "when Chicago was more in need of hospital beds." The acute housing situation in Chicago is not a circumstance to the hospital bed shortage. Were another epidemic of sickness to occur such as those which carried so many away by influenza, Chicago would be taxed to its limit of endurance to care for the patients. Chicago could care for them, for Chicago's heart is big and its homes are open, but an epidemic of sickness is not a question of home hospitality. It is a case of life and death if adequate facilities are not available.

"The great south side district beyond 55th St. is the most seriously short of hospital beds in the whole city. The Auburn Park Hospital project, with its 200 bed plan, will aid greatly in making the southern part of the city a leader in death prevention—for that is what a hospital is, pure and simple and in words easy to understand.

"The death rate per 1,000 of population in the last seven years in the 32nd ward was 13.37. That of the 31st ward, which has more hospitals, was 12.78. The 29th district, that which touches the stock yards district, has a rate of 16.55; the 9th ward, directly east of the 32nd, has a 12.72 figure; while the 8th ward, South Chicago, from which section many patients would be taken to the Auburn Park hospital, has one of the highest rates of the city, 16.03. These figures, contrasted with those of some other wards, are not high, but they are too high at that. They could be lowered materially by the installation of a big, modern hospital in the center of this big section."

Rules for Dancing in the Parks

Orchestras must play music as it is written with no added syncopation and be such as is conducive to proper dancing. The program must be arranged to end no later than 10:45 P. M. with the exception of Saturday when it must end no later than 11:45.

Let's Take a Chance

When clothing went up to a hundred a suit,
We said to ourselves, "No, indeedy;
No dollars we'll add to the profiteers' loot;
We vastly prefer to look seedy.
But now a good clergyman rises to say
That dress is the mold of a nation,
For shabbiness institutes moral decay
And smartness is virtue's foundation.

And yet Deacon Simpkins, who lived on the farm—
A ragged and tattered old geezer—
Who utterly lacked all sartorial charm
Was moral as Mrs. J Caesar.
He never put anything down on the wheel,
Or bet on the turn of the ticker.
The Janes for the deacon had not an appeal,
And he paled at the thought of hard liquor.

While Vera the vamp, who is dreadfully smart,
Whose costumes are always prophetic
Of styles yet unknown to the dressmaker's art,
Could hardly be termed an ascetic.
She dresses to show every sinuous curve;
The men fairly gasp when they pass 'er,
And no one would ever invite her to serve
As a student's adviser at Vassar.

And therefore we hold that the cleric is wrong;
We're safe with the overalled stranger,
But when a Parisian skirt comes along,
She fairly irradiates danger.
We can't see the menace in wearing old clothes;
Our puritan ancestors wore 'em;
And they (or at least so we're led to suppose)
Were patterns of perfect decorum.

The man that never works cannot appreciate the joys of a vacation.

Casey says he is always ready to admit that there are two sides to a question, "me own and the wrong wan," as he expresses it.

I am more than ever persuaded that the man without a million has no place in politics.

Casey says that probably the reason a black cow will give white milk to make yellow butter, is because a blackberry is red when it is green.

The hopes of some that the prohibitory amendment would be declared unconstitutional by the U. S. Supreme Court, have been blasted. Their decision won't even admit of moisture let alone wetness.

Now is the time to give up your comfortable home and fight mosquitoes and things in a crowded barn in the country along side some pond and imagine you are having a glorious vacation.

The price to be charged all bathers at the public beaches this summer will be ten cents. This is due probably to the increase in price of Lake Michigan. We know of no other reason.

If they don't do something to heat that water in good old Lake Mich. up, we boys will have to wear our overcoats in swimming, but the pretty girls manage to keep "warm as toast" with scarcely anything or nothing on.

Down South they look upon the Republican national conventions as the regular picnic time with the colored politicians, and hence several sets of delegates are usually elected from each state, now the fellows who were not seated want to know "How come? Who pay my tabelin' expenses and hotel bills?"

The late Mayor Mitchel of New York, who met his death on an aviation field, was a stanch supporter of President Wilson. He said: "President Wilson's war policies are so excellent that when fault is found with them the fault always turns out to be a virtue. It's like the case of the hen. The prospective buyer said to the prospective seller: 'Is she a perfect bird? Has she no faults at all?' 'Yes, she has one fault,' was the reluctant admission. 'She will persist in laying eggs on the Sabbath.'"

"Even the field hospitals close up to the firing line in France find time for an occasional laugh," writes Malcolm Adams of the Red Cross. A party of wounded marines were being taken to a base hospital on a much overcrowded motor truck. The nurse accompanying them became anxious about their wounds. "I hope I am not hurting any of you," she said. "You're hurting me a lot," replied one of the soldiers. "But I am nowhere near you," exclaimed the nurse indignantly. "That's what's hurting me," was the calm reply.

A group of dancers—among them June Patrick, Helen Nystrom, Florence Brown, Gladys Walker, Leah Dora Congdon and Mildred Rosenthal—gave some of the dances which made the Spanish play so popular.

Tilden Game

We succeeded in downing Tilden twice this year, the score of the last game being 4-1. Norman Sims, our pitcher, allowed only two hits and it was partly due to his handling of the ball that we won the game.

Hyde Park Game

A baseball game between Hyde Park and Englewood will be played Wednesday. This is really the most important game of the season because if we win it, we become sectional champions, but if we lose we participate in a triple tie between Hyde Park and Englewood. The game will be staged at Stagg Field. A good crowd is expected to be out. The Juniors are planning to go in a body.

Englebooster Dance

The last Englebooster dance of the year was postponed from Friday, June 4th, to Tuesday (on account of the Tilden game, which was played Friday). It was well attended.

On Monday evening, June 14th, William W. Porter, C. S. B., of New York City, a member of the board of lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Boston, Mass., will deliver a lecture at the Fourth Church, Marquette rd. and Harvard ave., at 8 o'clock. It will be free to everyone and everyone is cordially invited.

Hamilton Park Library

Attention is called to the fact that adult borrowers may take ten books, for ten weeks, on their regular fiction cards, during the vacation season, from June 1 to September 1.

Considerable interest is being shown in the shelf of foreign language books, which is composed of the standard authors in German, French and Spanish.

The Chicago Public Library has posted notices, calling attention of young women out of school to its school for librarians. An examination for entrants into this school will be held August 28th. The minimum education required for entrance into this school is a complete high school education.
